

The Chocolate War by Robert Cromier Chapters 1-12

Vocabulary List

Directions for vocabulary - First, find the word(s) as they are used in the story and write the sentence. Second, find and write the definition that best fits the meaning of the word(s) as it is used in the story. Third, create a sentence using the word(s) in a self-defining sentence. Example of a self-defining sentence: word - appreciate, defining sentence - I appreciate all of the encouraging words my mother gave me when I was studying for my final exam. not self-defining - My favorite word is appreciate. (I should be able to figure out the meaning of the word from your sentence.)
